Join your fellow CHHMA members as Mr. Dan Cassidy will discuss why TSC Stores has made the leap to become a wholesale supplier to independents, how they expect to compete in an ever consolidating marketplace and how they want to work with suppliers to grow their business.

Mr. Cassidy has 13 years of retail industry experience and has been with TSC Stores since 2008. Previous to his current position, Dan served as Director of Dealer Support & Director of Merchandising. Prior to TSC Stores, Dan was a General Manager at a Canadian Tire store in Owen Sound and was a Category Manager at Canadian Tire Corporation from 2004 to 2008.

TSC Stores is a Canadian owned and operated retailer, which has developed strong roots in Ontario and Manitoba over the past 45 years. The company specializes in products for farm and country home improvement, working the land, and outdoor hobbies. There are 41 corporate TSC stores and 5 dealer TSC Villager stores currently operating. The company is headquartered in London, Ontario. TSC Country Pro Services is a division of TSC Stores L.P. which, as part of its operations, offers wholesale programs to independent dealers.
